

Chairman Powell: Please protect small businesses and do not let the big companies force independent internet service providers out of the market.